

RFID reader

Radio Frequency IDentification

Your school nametag has a chip inside, that can be powered by and communicated with using a frequency of 125 kHz. Hold it near the copper rectangle down here.

<https://github.com/kreier/407B/tree/master/RFID>